FOOD FOR THOUGHT (3) looks a warm order here to get off the mark at the third attempt. Missed by 0.75L over 1600m last October behind a rival who has since placed second twice in Listed grade. This race looks within her range. LOVERS LEAP (5) shaped nicely at this track tackling 1700m on seasonal return in latest coming home third. Wouldn't need to improve significantly to get involved. CROWN OF DREAMS (2) produced a promising performance in a fillies event at Newcastle last month on debut. Likely to improve. The others may be seen to better effect in handicaps with WAY OF THE WILL (1) next best on what they have shown so far.

The two newcomers make some appeal on paper. Acclamation colt ANCHIANO (1) is a Newmarket raider representing the in-form George Scott yard. Likely to know what's expected. BLADEY LADY (5) is a filly by Minzaal out of a multiple Listed winner. The Tim Easterby team have commenced the turf season in good order. Definitely worth looking which way she goes in the market. RONSON (4) is one of three who raced over course and distance on debut start. Never really involved finishing 12L seventh. Progress likely. NAVY LIGHT (3) shaped well in a 3L defeat at Ripon trying 1200m first up. Certainly in the mix.

MERLIER (1) is comfortably the highest rated in this line-up. Gained two victories from four all-weather starts and arrives after a solid outing at 1200m providing latest start. A worry is his only disappointment was on turf however this looks winnable. ARTISTA (2) is a speedy filly who comes off a 4L third tackling this trip at Bath (firm). Drops in grade and could produce a good effort. SAUCY JANE (4) finished some way behind the just mentioned in the aforementioned contest. Plenty of course and distance winners clash in this intriguing sprint. BEERWAH (9) returned in fine form scoring at Redcar last time only six days on from narrowly failing when resuming. TWILIGHT MOON (6) concluded her previous campaign with a 1.25L course and distance success under Rob Hornby. Was able to replicate that display gaining another 1.25L triumph on reappearance here. Strong chance for a hat-trick. ARTH'S GOLD (8) got off the mark producing a ready 2.75L victory tackling the trip at Southwell. Open to further progress with that elusive first win under his belt. Shortlist. EPICTETUS (2) was knocking on the door delivering back-to-back AW placings. Climbs in trip and is interesting. VICTORS SPIRIT (7) was always doing enough opening his account at Southwell prior to a good second at the venue. Sound prospects.
