TRIPLE FORCE (1) showed good determination when holding rivals at bay to win by 0.5L over 1800m at Newmarket (Rowley) last start. Faces an easier task here and rates as the one to beat. JEWEL MAKER (3) defied market expectations scoring by a neck over 2000m at Redcar. Looks capable of another bold showing. BELIEVE IN LIES (5) improved in latest finishing 2.25L fourth over 1400m at Redcar. Could get involved if building on that effort. SHIELAS WELL (6) continues to race consistently having made it a third consecutive third placed effort over 1600m four weeks ago. Can be included among the main hopes.

Connections would have been expecting more from the well-bred ITRAAQ (5). Likely capable at this level with the daughter of Sea The Moon showing fair ability in her first three starts before finishing a fair third over 2000m at Sandown last time. Could appreciate going up in trip and get off the mark. Top weight KING'S CASTLE (1) maintained good condition this season and looks ready to go close once more following his third-place finish over 2800m here last time out. ETHELWULF (6) clearly holds ability and might get involved now among handicap company representing top connections. MERSEA ISLAND (2) completes the shortlist.

This might prove to be all about IRONIST (2) who was always in command winning over course and distance twenty six days ago. Trained by George Margaron and looks well-poised to defy a 1.5kg higher mark. DANDY DINMONT (4) finished a solid third attempting 1000m at Leicester. May appreciate going up in journey as a two-time winner tackling this trip. BILL PLUMB (1) was below-par last time. Cannot be ignored on a narrow track and trip success prior. Rates a danger. The recently gelded NACHO NACHO NACHO (5) makes his first start for a young trainer having a good first season. Worth giving plenty of thought.

DUFFUS CASTLE (12) needs to transfer his AW racing to the turf. Arrives in good form securing a nice victory over 1700m at Wolverhampton before being denied a head at Newcastle (2000m). Could have what it takes to shed the maiden tag on turf. VALKYRJA (7) holds obvious form claims after finishing a solid runner-up in first-time cheekpieces at Kempton (1600m) last time. LADY KAMEKO (4) remains without a win from eight starts. Cannot be ruled out having finished second in a similar handicap on soft ground at Bath recently.
