This race could be run at a good tempo. HOW'S THE GUVNOR (1) has been in solid form throughout winter and is likely to be one of those on the speed. This previous winner over course and distance warrants respect. ROARING RALPH (7) finally had a change of fortunes four weeks ago when scoring by 1L over course and distance. Likely to play another major role. SAMRA STAR (2) found form from nowhere sixteen days ago scoring at Wolverhampton. Needs to prove that was no one off. SHIELAS WELL (9) from stall one could get involved debuting for Ian Williams having finished fourth recently and now drops back in trip.

JUPITER AMMON (4) has been frustrating. Connections persevere with him and he returns after four months off the track having finished in fifth place when well supported at York. Interesting under Oisín Murphy. THAT'S AMORE (1) is lightly raced. MILETUS (5) returned from an absence making debut for new trainer James Keane three weeks ago when narrowly denied into second place at Lingfield Park. Replicating that form will make him hard to catch. I'M WORKIN ON IT (7) warrants respect bidding for a hat-trick. Won at this track previously and another bold show is expected. Any positive market movement in favour of CAVOLO NERO (1) would be significant after four months off. Produced a strong third when last seen.
