There will be winners coming out of this maiden hurdle. ON THE BAYOU (11) can be expected to go close as did just that last time finishing runner-up over course and distance here during December. Different ground encountered this time and could prove hard to beat. LIMIER D'ARTHEL (9) managed to win providing his second outing in France and wasn't without support making his British debut in January before falling at the first at Huntingdon. Providing he gets a clear round may go well. CAN'T RESIST IT (4) was held when behind at Cheltenham. This looks easier. CRYSTAL ORCHARD (5) hinted ability and is one to watch.

Good race with plenty of chances. EXCELERO (1) was expected to do much better when finishing fourth six weeks ago. Won here at this venue before and could prove hard to beat. KAP OUEST (4) is another with previous course winning form. Returned with a solid performance at Doncaster on chase debut six weeks ago and with these conditions suiting better could prove a major contender. INCA DE LAFAYETTE (5) has been lightly raced in recent seasons. Was ahead of the main selection at Warwick. Not without a chance. GEORGI GIRL (3) is yet to win tackling fences. BREDON HILL DART (5) is from a family that these connections have done well with. Gained a comfortable 4L success here during February tackling much different conditions to this while won on decent ground at Newton Abbot in June. Major player. HARRY JUNIOR (6) disappointed adopting first time cheekpieces here in November. They're removed and he holds chances. LUCKY LUGGER (2) finished only a neck behind the second mentioned at this venue last month. Holds ability to feature. Warrants a market check.

SNIPE (3) represents a leading yard. Holds plenty of smart rules form in his career including last November producing a good fourth tackling a 4800m premier handicap chase at Ascot. Won a 4200m hunters chase at Hereford two outings ago under rules. Big chance. A JET OF OUR OWN (2) recorded a runner-up effort in this event last year before an excellent fifth in the Aintree Hunters chase tackling national fences last season. Posted a 4200m third behind the main selection contesting the aforementioned Hereford hunters chase during January. With ability to go close rates the main danger. DENSWORTH (1) and CALIDAD (4) might fill third and fourth positions.
