NO DRAMA THIS END (12) seeks to replicate The New Lion's win in this contest last year by following up his G1 Challow Novices Hurdle success. Chase TURF GOOD SOFT Participants #14

Gordon Elliott has dominated this contest with five of the past eight renewals going his way and FAVORI DE CHAMPDOU (2) could add to that tally. This proven course and distance specialist won by 8L on Trials Day and rates a leading contender. Velka Pardubice hero STUMPTOWN (1) has been laid off for five months with a view to landing back-to-back successes in this race. Boasts a two-from-two track and trip record. Main danger. DESERTMORE HOUSE (9) represents the shrewd Martin Brassil yard. Runner-up in the Spring Punchestown La Touche Cup. Major player. VANILLIER (4) likely represents as the Gavin Cromwell second string. Impressive when scoring by 1.3L tackling 5000m at Punchestown most recently. In the mix.

Heads the list. HACKNEY DIAMONDS (4) conversely had a busy winter building a decent course record around this distance. Race reportedly not run to suit in latest so may bounce back. VELVET RED (5) was a winner here over 2200m in January making handicap debut. Couldn't follow up a month later however top connections persevere. Place chance. SHIPSHAPE (1) provides first start for a new stable. Showed enough last term to suggest he can take a race.

BEE MY HONEY (6) could have more to offer after scoring a Chelmsford maiden (1400m) eighteen days ago. Stood far less racing than her rivals and a switch to handicaps could suit. Looks value. PACKETOFBISCUITS (2) has really hit stride again lately registering a pair of course and distance victories. Little to stop him making it three in row. GOLDMOYNE (1) is yet to miss placings the previous eight starts this winter. Likes to make all though might find that harder here receiving a difficult barrier. Earns respect nonetheless. THANKUAPPRECIATE (7) was a course winner tackling 1200m two starts back and completes the shortlist.
