LELANT (4) was in search of a hat-trick when at Fontwell Park in December when last seen however provided a lacklustre display. On that occasion the trainer could offer no explanation for the poor performance. Better can be expected so worth giving close consideration. LINE OF DESCENT (3) bounced back with a second place finish at Doncaster last month though some 20L away from the winner. Will need more in this contest. BLACK OCC (6) revisits fences after a disappointing debut at Ludlow in January. Best watched. CHIEF BLACK ROBE (2) made a bad mistake when pulling up at Taunton a fortnight ago. Needs to jump better.

BALLYWOOD (3) was unlucky in defeat at Huntingdon last week when beaten by a short head dropping in trip on decent ground. This looks a good opportunity for the veteran and is considered. THE BRICKEY RANGER (6) made a successful stable debut over course and distance last week. Unlikely to be too far away finding another winnable contest. CHESTNUT PETE (1) has been a model of consistency lately placing third on three successive starts. Could be vulnerable for win purposes once again. MCGRATH FROM CLUNE (4) brings an inconsistent profile. Previously won over course and distance and therefore warrants respect.

L'AVENTARA (5) was successful in three of her five point to point starts. Makes rules debut late in life however clearly holds ability and comes from a fine family. One to take seriously. JOHNNY'S BELLE (3) wasn't disgraced in a jumpers flat on soft ground at Ffos Las a week ago. Could be suited by the better conditions. Major player. KERNIE D'AIRY (4) won on her only start in France. Well held tackling a listed event at Newbury in February. More needed but warrants respect. ISABELLA ISLAY (9) showed progress providing her latest effort tackling a shorter trip here on soft ground. BEST NIGHT (2) finally doubled her hurdle tally gaining a success at Huntingdon earlier this month by 0.5L. This will be a different test all together. Looks progressive. MADAME DE LABRUNIE (3) is yet to reach the heights for this stable since moving from France. Might be seen to better effect tackling this more realistic assignment. ARNIE MOON (1) takes on a handicap after struggling in maiden hurdles. Will have a better chance at this level and is well worth a market check. ONE KNIGHT (1) eventually got off the mark on the second attempt when scoring making stable debut for Emma Lavelle at Southwell in December 2024. Lightly raced for a six year old however this isn't a daunting standard. LEGEND D'AIRY (2) rates as the best hope on paper amongst the newcomers. By the Epsom Derby winner Motivator from the stable of Ben Pauling. Market will guide. GENTORA (9) couldn't land a blow on debut at Warwick however this ground could be more suitable and is worth giving another chance. GREAT OAK LAD (6) is a dam related to several winners including in this sphere. Looks one for the future.

PAPS OF JURA (7) began his racing career late racing for a jumps-orientated yard. Noted after producing his best effort last time when suffering a troubled passage over 1600m. Longer trip could suit. Interesting outsider. SAACHI (8) landed a similar event when dropping into this grade at Wolverhampton last time under this in-form rider. Potential to follow up. GEARING'S POINT (5) hasn't scored in a while. Wasn't beaten far when third over course and distance last month. Must include down in this grade. TATMEEN (9) has been operating below best of late. BEAMING LIGHT (6) is an interesting contender dropping back to the 1200m distance for the first time. Can ignore latest outing as had trouble at the start. Keen going performer holding some appeal over shorter. PROFIT STREET (5) is shaping as a typical runner for owner and trainer. Races frequently and rarely missed the frame this winter. Steadily up in grade as a result and still a must for the shortlist. DESDEMONA (8) arrives in search of a hat-trick. Successful here and then at Chelmsford last time (1000m).
