MYDADDYPADDY (5) impressed on only career outing scoring by 11L a jumpers flat race at Huntingdon last March. Represents an in-form trainer and jockey combination. Leading contender. HARBOUR ISLAND (3) bids for a hat-trick. Secured a 2.5L victory debuting at Wetherby before following up with a 1.5L win at Ffos Las. Both were in jumpers flat races and securing the mount of a top jockey could prove dangerous. ATLANTIC LAD (2) is yet to shed the maiden tag. Placed four consecutive times including a second in a Leicester maiden hurdle. May go one better. MISTER URSUS (4) is of interest delivering UK debut for a noted stable.

Participants #6

SHANTWOPOINTFIVE (2) finished last season with a hurdling win at Cartmel scoring by 3.5L. Jumps nicely and could be an even better chaser. Major player. SHE IS FOR ME BOYS (5) won both novice hurdles last season while finished second making her stable debut. Goes chasing unexposed and off a low weight presents a serious threat. GEORGI GIRL (3) is an honest mare who often gives her running. Does find it tricky to win though often performs well fresh and is worth considering. ILOVETHENIGHTLIFE (4) received a spell since unseating at Cheltenham in April. Cheek pieces remain fitted after wind surgery. Watch the betting.

BEBSIDE BANTER (6) found form from nowhere over fences at Worcester four weeks ago. Reverts back to hurdles and rates a player with confidence restored. Could prove hard to beat. FINAL STRAW (1) remains unexposed. Tackles handicaps after three moderate efforts in maiden hurdles. Cheek pieces applied for the first time. Watch the betting. HURST HILL (3) could only manage to finish fourth three weeks ago at Plumpton. On best efforts cannot be dismissed. HARKSMAN (4) offered little in maiden hurdles before this handicap debut. Rated fairly on what he's achieved and with the hood added might show progress.
