HIMSELF (6) arrives in a rich vein of form and escapes a penalty for his course and distance victory four days ago. If taking to another quick race he should prove very tough to beat. MOAB (1) placed second most recently over hurdles and arrives here up in the weights for a course and distance win two flat starts ago (a rise which is offset by the rider's claim). Likely challenger. SKYCUTTER (2) and FLEUR DE MER (3) are both sliding down the ratings however arrive on the back of respectable placed efforts. They could be thereabouts. MARRA DONNA (7) was mightily well-supported on handicap debut five days ago when a shade unlucky not to last home. Drop back to 1200m may suit on that evidence and shapes as though a win is imminent. NALA'S DREAM (3) is steadily improving. Sealed a nice win at Wolverhampton when last seen. Up in weight but likely to play a role again. KULLAZAIN (7) managed to keep on nicely under the in-form Hector Crouch to open his account with a 1L win tackling the trip at Wolverhampton. Faces tougher opposition here and may give another good account. EL BODON (1) made it two from two on the AW when a 1.25L course and distance winner in December with Rossa Ryan aboard. Rates the main danger. STRATUSNINE (3) is two from six attempting the journey. Needs to bounce back from unseating his rider in a Listed affair at Lingfield providing latest outing. Sound prospects. TIGER CRUSADE (8) maintains a reasonable mark after gaining his sixth AW triumph at Lingfield last month. Unlikely to be far away.
