I C U IN MY DREAMS (4) arrives on the back of a sound second over 3100m at Catterick and is now among stronger company. Still lightly raced and capable of handling the rise in grade. Main danger. LITTLE RUBY (5) is a debutant by Mondialiste out of Anne's Valentino and profiles well on paper. Market support to add confidence and a bold showing is anticipated. Warrants consideration. PURE OCEAN (8) showed ability when fifth contesting 3600m at Plumpton on debut. Likely to take a step forward with experience. Might feature late.

VELVET VULCAN (6) improved on a fourth at Ayr two back managing a strong second over 4100m there on latest outing. That upward trend reads well. Leading contender. SNOW DRAGON (4) has been consistent at Musselburgh following a 4000m third with another third tackling the same trip last time. Needs to find a bit but current form keeps him in the mix. TIME WAS (7) commenced campaign with a Market Rasen 4100m second then dipped to fourth tackling 3900m at Hereford. Returns to a more suitable set-up and can bounce back. ROCK N ROLL CHAMP (12) continues a maiden edging closer having recorded a Carlisle 3400m fourth on latest effort. If progress continues he warrants consideration.

STENCIL (5) has been mixing it in a much better grade than this. Produced an eye-catching race in latest at Ascot last month. Will appreciate a drop in standard and may dominate this contest. JUBY BALL (1) looks a work in progress for Evan Williams holding plenty of ability. Fell at Ffos Las however cannot be ruled out granted a clear round. PALACIO (2) was a good winner when returning to action before pulling up at Newbury. Needs a revival. Warrants thought. STORMING NELSON (4) is getting the hang of things. Did disappoint as favourite at Exeter three weeks ago. Progress is anticipated and looks one to consider.

CHARISMA CAT (1) is a very talented mare who was a good second at Newbury making hurdle debut in listed grade. Was a chance to win at Wincanton last month but was unable to hold off a challenger. Worth giving another chance needing to earn back trust. CLONDAW PARK (2) was a good winner of her point to point before joining Harry Derham. Unseated the jockey attempting a listed race at Newbury. Too soon to write off. Major player. CUE JUMP (3) holds good points form and is one to watch in the market on debut for Kayley Woollacott. TRINITY STREET (10) was expected to go close last time when third at Hexham. One to consider

FAT FACED COLUMBO (14) couldn't have been anymore impressive winning last time by 10L at Taunton. Looks very hard to beat in this sort of form. ALI STAR BERT (8) pulled up at Lingfield eight days ago when the jockey reported he hung left handed. Poses a major threat now going in that direction. GENIETOILE (3) returned to the track with a solid third before falling when last seen four weeks ago. Worth giving another chance in this competitive event. DANGEROUS TOUCH (6) now wears first time cheekpieces after finishing third most recently when favourite at Ayr. Remains interesting and warrants consideration.
