HAPPY BIRTHDAY DAVID GRIFFIN MAIDEN...

Hurdle TURF HEAVY Participants #10

BABYKEN (8) was a talented horse in France and came to the stable of Paul Nicholls with a big reputation however needed the run at Fontwell. Managed to build on that last time finishing second here last month. Stable are in fine form and could take plenty of beating. MARHABA PRINCE (4) ran well on hurdle debut. Produced a solid second at Sedgefield when last seen two months ago. Plenty was expected on that occasion and hard to fault. WAY OF STARS (10) proved a solid debutante for David Pipe at Exeter. Hood is now applied and will have a role to play. WESTERN CROSS (5) indicated enough ability in three starts to think a race of this nature is within his grasp INNAMORATO (8) was better last time than what we've seen in the UK so far however still needs to improve on that form from Wincanton four weeks ago to get involved. This doesn't look as difficult a task and rates a major player. LEADER CRICK (5) was second in a point to point before finishing a disappointing sixth on hurdle and stable debut at Cheltenham. Wind surgery since and still early days. One to consider. FIVE BAR GATE (3) won on his second start for this yard. Went backwards at Plumpton four weeks ago and will need to improve. Competitive handicap chase. CALL ME ARTHUR (4) was a good winner at Huntingdon three weeks ago. That rates as some of the best racing in this event and could prove hard to stop. BATAILLON (3) turned his form around to score over course and distance four weeks ago winning by 1.75L. Looks the type who may improve further and is one to consider. FAMILY FUN DAY 9 APRIL OPEN HUNTERS...

Chase TURF HEAVY Participants #7

GOLDEN SON (1) hinted significant talent under rules. Seemed to relish the step into hunter chase company three weeks ago at Warwick looking impressive. Warrants thought as could gain another success despite the penalty. BEACON EDGE (5) was very smart during his younger days in Ireland. Made the perfect start for Josh Newman last month attempting a point to point. Worth considering as likely to be in the mix. SNIPE (4) made the dream start to life in hunter chases securing a narrow victory at Hereford. Can be given another a chance. REVELS HILL (6) previously won over course and distance and rates an interesting chance.

Several contenders advance in trip to this sharp 2000m including RISING FORCE (2) who is consistent having landed a 1600m handicap at this course on penultimate start. Almost followed up and could be thereabouts again among this company. JOSEPH (1) remains a maiden. Handicapper is relenting after a fair recent fourth and the step up in distance might be worth exploring. BETA READER (6) suffered an awkward start here last time so did well considering. Might take a hand again. MASQOOL (3) has not been with his current trainer long. Return to 2000m may see him in a better light. Each way alternative.

SPANISH VOICE (1) is taken to defy a penalty after making all in a Newmarket maiden over this distance last April. Will likely be fit and ready to go. Obvious chance. BINTKEND (3) may provide solid opposition having shown clear promise in a pair of Haydock maidens last summer. Represents a good stable and likely to be challenging the main selection. German import ABANDO (2) has yet to trouble the judge in three starts on these shores. Would hold an each way chance however among this company. NUPTOWN GIRL (5) missed the break on latest. Produced a career best second previously and might get involved.

A race where it may pay to focus on the recent winners. Northern raider WOODRAFF (11) came within a nose of victory over this distance at Wolverhampton last week. Given a sound opportunity to make amends while still eligible for classified company. The James Evans trained pair AMERICAN ROSE (2) and MINTANA (7) look difficult to separate. Both claimed second place finishes most recently with the former over this 1400m trip. Worth considering. HUNTLY LODGE (5) may stake a claim from the inside draw if running to form of her penultimate start when fourth here (1400m). Anticipated to be thereabouts. It is hard to be enthusiastic about chances of the remaining field.
