While unable to show much ability in five starts as a juvenile STARAKOVA (7) starts out off the back of a break and moving up in trip. Represents shrewd connections and secures a useful jockey booking. Definitely worth checking out for market moves in a moderate opener. HOVE RANGER (5) managed to step forward delivering handicap debut beaten 1.75L over 1600m. Entitled to make further strides. ELECTROCUTION (1) scored at the seventh attempt by a neck last time. Not overly penalised and must be considered once more. HAMISH LEEK (6) offered little to date however adopts new headgear and is back down in trip. Worth giving another chance.

An extremely tight novice contest. PULSAR STAR (2) is narrowly put forward after making a promising debut for this stable over 1600m in latest beaten 2.25L fourth. A similar effort will see him thereabouts again. HOLLY MIST (5) raced a bit greenly finishing second of three beaten 1L at Lingfield a fortnight ago. Expect improvement. Clear alternative. MARLBOROUGH PLACE (1) receives a penalty for a Limerick maiden win in July. Makes return representing new yard and warrants respect. ABLON (3) moves down in trip after finishing 1.75L off the winner attempting a course maiden last time. Another to consider.

The useful KINGDOM COME (3) has many positives coming into this contest making his seasonal return. He can be a stride slow away from the gates but faces a smaller field so may negotiate a passage for a late run. Goes well fresh and races off a reduced handicap mark. Also holding a good course record looks the one to beat. POPMASTER (1) broke a long losing streak landing a 1600m handicap here in latest. Every chance of a follow up tackling a trip he handles. NIKOVO (4) was only 1.25L further back that day and is better off at the weights here. In the mix. GOD OF WAR (2) went well making seasonal debut last year and could be in contention..

TOP OF THE CLASS (5) showed a return to form last time finishing well to go second beaten 3.5L at Wolves under this rider. Can now race off the same handicap mark as that last win which came over course and distance one year ago. Could be primed for this. LUMINOUS WARRIOR (9) landed a handicap here attempting the journey two starts back before being officially unsuited last time. Chance to atone here. RHYTHM N ROCK (4) was well-supported and a neck second that day. Must overcome a subsequent lesser performance however is still on a handy rating. This race is often targeted by the Godolphin and Frankel colt HIDDEN FORCE (1) who may win the renewal for them again. Showed a good attitude winning a novice here (1400m) in December by 1.75L. With plenty more to come is the one to beat. TADEJ (2) rates an interesting opponent having won a G3 as a juvenile (1200m, turf, good) amongst plenty of other smart performances. Now returns having been gelded and up in distance warrants respect. Smartly-bred VENETIAN PRINCE (4) cannot be judged solely on his defeat last time. Might go close. PARISIAN SCHOLAR (1) made good improvement through the grades last autumn when last seen landing a Class 4 at Newcastle by 1.25L. COMBUSTION (2) has been prolific on the all-weather since qualifying for a mark. Landed a Lingfield handicap with a minimum fuss two weeks ago and there is little reason to oppose again under the usual rider. INVINCIBLE SPEED (4) returned to winning ways getting home by a neck last start (1200m). Could prove dangerous. TYGER BAY (1) eases back in grade after a narrow defeat among Class 2 company when last seen. Course and distance winner last July. Consistent and right in this on form. EM FOUR (3) can be quirky. Did record a solid effort at Southwell a fortnight ago so worth following up again here.

MONKS MEAD (5) might not boast the best winning strike rate however did well last time when fourth at Chelmsford making good late ground. Player. MAN IS KING (4) was safely held running ninth in latest after a win at Chelmsford previous start. Likely to improve maintaining top-three prospects.

SOUTHBANK (9) provided good form this winter on the all weather. Fair four weeks ago when a beaten favourite at Kempton Park. Needs to break well from stall two but capable of getting involved. PROFIT STREET (5) finally put his head back in front two weeks ago when winning as favourite over 1400m. Warrants thought as another bold showing expected. WATERMELON SUGAR (1) improved of late including when narrowly beaten last month as favourite. Might be in the mix once again. The market will point towards chances of JUST JUMP (7) who joined trainer Tony Carroll since finishing third at Dundalk during December.
