A race where none of the three runners can be ruled out. Slender preference goes the way of FAIRLAWN SKIPPER (2) with the Mickey Bowen trained Stratford jumpers flat winner not disgraced when third on hurdling debut at Uttoxeter a month ago. May come on for the run. Jockey Sean Bowen continues to be at the top of his game. Makes the most appeal. Evan Williams trains winning point-to-point recruit MINELLA APPRENTICE (3) who could prove the main threat making rules debut for notable connections. CALME OLYMPIEN (1) indicated a decent level of hurdling ability in France and could put his experience to good use.

ANOTHER LORD (2) rates a solid option for the Mickey and James Bowen combination. This previous course winner has three fences wins and arrives in top form having landed a handicap chase tackling the same class at Uttoxeter last month. Up 3kg for that effort. May complete a double. NEO KING (3) continues without success under rules. Unexposed in the chasing sphere and cannot be ignored. Trained by Evan Williams and last seen finishing a good second in a heavy-ground handicap chase at Exeter 237 days ago. May get involved on reappearance if handling these quicker conditions. MINI FORTUNE (7) ran well out of the weights finishing third in a Class Five handicap chase tackling a similar trip at Uttoxeter last time. The Thomas Faulkner trained mare remains a maiden and handling decent ground can win this. IMPERIAL MEASURE (5) could prove the main danger stepping back up in trip after a close third-place finish in a handicap chase at Newcastle on reappearance last month. The unexposed ROE AND CO (1) may enjoy this stamina test and cannot be ignored among this company making chase debut. The Nigel and Willy Twiston-Davies-trained jumpers flat winner AT THE OCHE (6) might take some stopping. This four-year-old son of Ocovango looked as though he would come on for the experience when runner-up making hurdle debut at Newton Abbot last month. This more galloping track could play to his strengths. Local trainer Evan Williams does well at this track and ELUSIVE KNIGHT (3) cannot be ignored debuting under rules having landed a point-to-point 207 days ago. ISLE OF SARK (1) came home with a flourish recording a second hurdle win when fitted with the first-time visor at Sedgefield (4000m) eight days ago. The Mickey Bowen-trained chance carries a 3.5kg penalty for that effort and a Shane Fenelon claim negates the majority of this. May follow-up. WOLFSPEAR (4) appears the obvious threat representing Oly Murphy after finishing a good second hurdling at Uttoxeter after five months off. The final fixture of the year at Brighton will be run on unusually quick ground. STATE OF MADNESS (1) ticks plenty of boxes after an easy 3.5L success among this company over course and distance last week. Leading contender. GROVELY BELLE (5) did well seventeen days ago when a solid 2.5L third in this handicap class tackling 1400m here. Can continue the progressive trend. Makes appeal. FAI FAI (4) showed plenty of ability last week finishing 3.5L third behind the top pick at this venue. Runs off the same mark and enjoys this circuit. Could go close again. Two-time track and trip winner ROMAN SPRING (2) won at this course attempting the journey before a good fourth last week. Holds claims.

Two-time course winner A PINT OF BEAR (10) ran well last week when a nose second among this company tackling a track and trip handicap. Ticks plenty of boxes. Serious player. STARSONG (7) enjoys this venue with a narrow 1000m handicap victory here preceding a 3.5L runner-up result last week over 1200m. Main danger. Eleven-year-old POETIC FORCE (5) scored four times here including a 1600m handicap success during August. Placed third on soft going at this track last month. Warrants thought off this mark. KING OF WAR (3) landed a similar level course and distance handicap two runs ago. Worth a second look.

The last race of the year at Brighton can go the way of ANTIPHON (4) who brings smart recent form following a trio of course placings including a 3.5L third last week tackling a higher level course and distance handicap. Leading chance. LIBRA TIGER (2) showed plenty of ability during the August Festival here when 2L second in this handicap grade over 1000m. Worth including. MARCUS (7) was runner-up in this event last year. Produced a decent fourth in a 1000m Southwell AW handicap two weeks ago. Holds claims. JUNO STAR (5) may build on a fair 2.5L fifth contesting a 1200m handicap at Nottingham a week ago. Interesting.
