BROOKIE (3) produced a smart 3.5L second in the 3200m G1 Maghull Novices Chase two runs ago. Interesting.

Frankel colt SHIPBOURNE (7) is a full-brother to the same connections of Listed winner Task Force. The Ralph Beckett trained juvenile looks good on paper and can make a successful debut under retained rider Colin Keane. Ed Walker trains Dark Angel colt EUSTON HALL (2) who ticks plenty of boxes and must be respected in a race of this nature. GALBA (3) represents a local powerful trainer on debut and cannot be dismissed. NOT THAT GUY (6) swerved coming out of the stalls when only fifth of six on debut over 1200m at Haydock. Racing for trainer Hugo Palmer and will need more here though is bred to do better and might leave that latest effort behind.

MAWOOD (13) looks to be progressing nicely. Arrives bidding for a hat-trick following narrow wins over 2000m at Redcar and Nottingham. The Harry Eustace trained three-year-old could appreciate going up to 2400m and might be capable of completing a treble off this revised mark. FOURNEOHFEVER (1) won tackling the trip at Catterick last week. Holds obvious claims under a 2.5kg penalty. MIDNIGHT RUMBLE (7) is going well of late and sure to be firmly in the mix after a decent second at Epsom (2400m) twenty six days ago. William Haggas has enjoyed a fine season and his runner DAY OF GRACE (7) looks to be improving nicely. The daughter of Night Of Thunder picked up in excellent fashion to score by 3.5L when up to 2000m at Goodwood recently. A 3kg penalty might not be enough to halt her progress. Unexposed PRINCESS RASCAL (2) won well tackling this trip at Newmarket (July) and could have plenty more to offer for the Oli Cole team. GLORIOUS (4) ran well over course and distance before being denied a head at Salisbury (2000m). It looks as though her time to gain a win might be near. ROARIN' SUCCESS (1) holds each-way claims.

MAELSTROM (10) looked to be progressing rapidly before failing to complete the four-timer when seventh at York (1200m) in June. Trained by William Haggas and not beaten far that day on ground toward the quick side. Can return to winning ways back down in standard under softer conditions. Stablemate SHOWERING (3) handles ease in the ground and could prove a main threat with Harry Burns taking off 1.5kg following his third-place finish at Goodwood recently. Last-time-out Ayr winner WOVEN (5) needs to be included on his first start at this track despite racing off a 1.5kg higher mark. DR STRANGELOVE (2) rounds out the shortlist.
