Interesting maiden hurdle. JACCOURS (3) has held his form well of late without troubling the judge. Irrespective of rating connections are sticking with a maiden hurdle. Warrants plenty of thought. BUDDY HOLLY (1) caught the eye on stable debut racing for Nicky Henderson when third at Newbury. Worth giving close consideration. KARMA POLICE (4) indicated promise in jumpers flat contests however disappointed last time so needs to bounce back. KENZO DES BRUYERES (5) managed to win his last two outings in point to points and joins a stable going well. Cheekpieces are fitted for the first time. One to note.

TURENNE (8) made a bright start to his career before falling at Fontwell Park when last seen. Well supported on that occasion and receives plenty of weight here to rate a major player. TITANIUM RING (6) caught the eye as a debutante before falling when last seen at Uttoxeter delivering initial hurdle outing. Will have been well schooled since and warrants thought. TRADE WAR (7) showed ability in all three starts to date. Perhaps best considered in this though with a view to keeping an eye on in future handicaps. BLOWERS (1) caused a huge upset at Exeter two starts back before falling here three weeks ago. Better watched under the penalty.

TALIS EVOLVERE (6) returned to form earlier this month gaining a 0.75L triumph over 1600m at the track. Faced stronger opposition when second of nine next time at Newcastle and rates a serious player back down in trip. Five-time course and distance winner LEGAL REFORM (4) managed to keep on to gain his eighth AW success when a 1.25L Wolverhampton winner. Makes plenty of appeal holding form. Feared. DOCTOR KHAN JUNIOR (3) is five from eleven on the AW and might be thereabouts eased in standard. Shortlist. Bottom weight DOWN TO THE KID (9) enters calculations following a pair of track and trip wins. Watch betting moves.

MILITARY CROSS (4) found the frame in all six career starts. Swaps blinkers for first-time cheekpieces and looks interesting stepping up in trip making his first visit here. Strong chance. MOON SNIPER (7) was prominent throughout when just headed close to home over 2400m at this venue seventeen-days-ago. The four-year-old was only beaten 0.5L that day and holds sound prospects tackling the longer trip off an unchanged mark. Any moves in the market for TROJAN SOLDIER (8) can be noted making reappearance while three-time turf winner REINA DEL MAR (2) is lightly-raced on the AW and also merits consideration.

TIME TURNER (1) managed to build on a creditable second over 2010m at Newcastle and open his account with a 3.5L victory under Callum Rodriguez at the same venue. Small rise in weights might not be enough to stop a repeat performance. Serious player. Course winner NAUGHTY NIALL (3) arrives in strong form after back-to-back seconds at Wolverhampton. Climbs in trip and looks interesting. Key threat. BEACHBOROUGH GIRL (4) got off the mark making stable debut at Chelmsford earlier in the month with the in-form Dylan Hogan aboard. Rates highly. ROGUE IDENTITY (6) improved third-up to place at Lingfield last week. Might feature.
