WORD FOR WORD (8) showed plenty of improvement switching to hurdles making the perfect start to his jumping career five weeks ago when successful by 5.5L in a course and distance juvenile hurdle. Leading contender. NOBOTHERATALL (7) placed in a pair of jumpers flat races including last September at this track before scoring by 0.75L a 3400m jumpers flat contest at Carlisle during October. Respect making hurdle debut. SMOKE TRAIL (1) represents a notable local yard. The five-year-old made a winning rules and hurdle debut tackling track and trip last October. Posted a fair fourth in a 3200m novices handicap hurdle at Newbury a month ago. Makes appeal. Progressive runner CHANGEMYLUCK (9) might place.

MISS CARBO (1) maintains a progressive profile. Secured a 5L victory among this company over 4000m at Hereford a week ago. Finds ideal opportunity to follow up. Big chance. PARISH STAR (8) completed a double tackling this trip gaining a 6.5L success in a Southwell mares novices limited handicap hurdle before a below par fifth trying 3800m at Carlisle in the same grade six weeks ago. Respect on best form. VANILLA DANCER (3) scored by 1L in this hurdle standard attempting 3200m at Catterick before a Carlisle fourth last month. Holds claims. GREEN BONNET (5) arrives unexposed. NIGHTS IN VENICE (8) arrives in strong form with a heavy ground runner-up effort tackling a higher level 5200m handicap chase here preceding a 0.75L victory among this chase company over 4800m at Ayr four weeks back. Leading player. BENEFIT BEN (1) is a previous course winner (May 2025). Proven in this company having scored attempting 4800m at Musselburgh during December. BURGUNDY MAN (7) proved consistent last year delivering six placings prior to a 1.75L success in this handicap chase level over 4800m at Perth last October. Interesting on seasonal return. The progressive KAHAVARI (1) recorded a close second in a 4200m novices handicap chase at Carlisle twenty five days ago. Raised in trip and could improve further. Rates highly. ALWAYS A REASON (3) won three times this season including twice tackling fences. Showed plenty of ability two weeks back managing 2.25L second attempting a higher level 4400m novices handicap chase here. Rates the main danger. MY LADY ELEKTRA (5) looks one to note having made the top three on two occasions from the last three outings including a 1.75L runner-up effort in a course and distance novices handicap chase last November. Makes appeal. LADY IN THE PARK (2) might make the frame.

Though not the most straightforward (hooded every start) was beaten only a head making handicap debut and sticking to the task well can break through. OKAMI (8) can be considered in this open contest. Brings two victories over the distance this winter at Newcastle. Still on a fair rating and stable capable of readying one. JEANY MAY (4) makes seasonal return. Went well fresh first up last campaign and also produced two placed efforts with both attempts at this venue. Enters the frame. AUNTIE JO (9) finally got off the mark in latest among classified company sporting a first-time visor (retained). No certainty to back that up however warrants respect. LITTLE MI MI (2) and FORTUNATE STAR (3) were the first pair home in a recent Newcastle handicap. Both arrive in form though might find things tougher up in ratings.
