A moderate amateur riders contest. TAKE THE BOAT (9) rates the best option after three solid runs since changing stables. Went well when a good fourth at Kempton twenty six days ago and appears well-weighted 0.5kg less with Harry Brown taking off 3.5kg. This looks a gift for the well-bred Frankel colt LEONETTO (4) who finished runner-up over both 1200m and 1400m on his last three starts. Replicating any of those efforts will suffice here. HORACE WALLACE (3) was by no means disgraced when third in a course and distance novice event second time out fifty six days ago. Trained by Richard Fahey and could have more to offer. LATIN (2) has now landed four of his last five starts. Picked up well to score by a short-head over course and distance recently and is now three from four tackling track and trip, Thereabouts racing from stall six. MR NUGGET (6) battled on well to prevail by the same margin attempting slightly further here last time. Dropping back in journey will prove no bother as a dual course and distance winner and he warrants respect off a 1.5kg higher mark. FRANCESI (3) could also be suited by dropping back in trip after he followed up two 1600m wins with a good second contesting 1900m here seventeen days ago. LESSAY (9) also warrants consideration.

CORUNDUM (3) remains a maiden. Shaped as though his tum was near when runner-up over 1700m here twenty seven days ago. Rob Homby might just look to hold onto him a bit longer now that he steps up in trip and that could prove the difference. MAGIC RUNNER (4) followed up a nice course and distance success with a solid third back here recently. The talented apprentice Taryn Langley now takes off 2.5kg and a bold bid looks assured. FLAT ALL WEATHER STANDARD Participants #12

ATHENIAN SPIRIT (2) has been going well without winning. Looks ready to strike following a good second behind a progressive horse over 1600m at Lingfield AW recently. Dropping back to 1400m won't pose any issues and he can get off the mark racing off an unchanged rating. ELECTROCUTION (7) found the same rival too strong over course and distance a fortnight ago. Warrants respect once more. The third home that day BLUE MOUNTAINS (12) remains unexposed and may get involved from the foot of the weights. KANES A LOTT (4) might now show more with a first-time visor fitted receiving a nice draw in stall two.
