KINGS CHAMPION (2) made an eye-catching debut when trained by Paul Nicholls. Stepped forward for Olly Murphy gaining a comfortable win last time out at Ayr by 12L. GOOD FRIDAY FAIRY (3) has maintained good form for quite some time. Went well when a beaten favourite four weeks ago at Exeter and though this is a stiffer test holds winning form here on soft ground and therefore is the one to beat. BRAVE KINGDOM (1) is talented on his going days but equally fragile. More than good enough to capitalise on his falling rating and worth giving close consideration. ROYAL JEWEL (2) tends to run his best races at Exeter. It's uncertain as to whether this stiff test will be what's required. Best watched. BUCKSY DES EPEIRES (4) performed below expectations last time. Revival needed.

NEDZOR (4) is a tentative selection in this open looking contest having performed below market expectations four weeks ago. Started the campaign in good condition and now fitted with first time cheekpieces looks a threat again. STORMING NELSON (3) tackled a fierce novices chase just a week ago and will find this much more realistic. Worth giving close consideration. JAITROPLACLASSE (1) has been keeping busy of late. Holding his form maintaining strong claims. FALCO DES PINS (2) proved disappointing of late. More was expected when finishing sixth last time out. Arrives fresh following wind surgery and rates a player.

Second-up. Yet to threaten in nine runs to date. Unimpressive when 16th over 4800m at this track last start. The drop in distance may help but looks safely held without significant improvement.

TARITINO (6) is a former course winner who looked to be on the improve start of the season. Disappointed last time when fifth here three weeks ago. This looks wide open and warrants serious thought. Trainer Paul Nicholls is persevering with IT'S A BREEZE (4) now wearing a tongue-strap along with a hood. Respect as warrants thought. ILOT DE L'ISLE (3) has been out of sorts for a while and adopts cheek pieces for the first time. Best watched. OURBROWNEYEDGIRL (5) offered hope for the future making her handicap debut earlier in the week. Worth giving another chance with connections finding a nice race.
