Form of two recent ROGUE DYNASTY (1) second-place finishes have been bolstered nicely. The James Owen trained filly encountered an impressive subsequent winner at Newmarket (July) last time and might go one spot better here despite a 2kg higher mark. CUBAN GIRL (3) did well since raised to 1600m. May find further progress providing her first outing for Brian Toomey. Finished runner-up on soft ground at Ffos Las sixty one days ago and cannot be discounted off the same rating. BRITISH BLUE (4) shaped as though stepping back up to 1600m would suit when third at Newbury earlier in the month. ALBUS ANNE (5) could find the frame.

NEPAL (7) provided decent form in Ireland. Produced a smooth winning debut for new connections among maiden company at Yarmouth and likely has more to give attempting 2000m. BEACH POINT (8) won nicely over course and distance and can remain in the mix off 2kg higher. DOUBLE RED (11) is two from three in cheekpieces. Holds obvious claims following a good third behind CHARMING WHISPER (4) at Newmarket (July) last time where the former is now better off at the weights and needs to be included while the latter has since finished third under a penalty at the same venue and cannot be discounted.
