ROGUE TEMPTATION (4) encountered a useful performer dead-heating for second over 1200m at Ripon. The winner has since gone on to finish a respectable fourth in the G2 Lowther Stakes at York and it's possible there could be more to come from this Ed Bethell trained filly now entering nurseries. Progressive runner HALF SOVEREIGN (1) might not want it testing but cannot be ignored following a success over 1400m at Newmarket (July) last time. Similar comments apply to BRISK SYMPHONY (3), who was withdrawn due to testing ground at Goodwood after her ready win tackling a Newbury novice event in July. GWEN JOHN (6) and CONCERT (7) are others to note.

The Aidan O'Brien-trained BRUSSELS (2) still looked inexperienced when fourth tackling the G2 July Stakes at Newmarket (July) before his second-place finish in a 1500m Listed event at Tipperary last time out. This striking son of Wootton Bassett could have more to offer now back down in trip and can land this. JEL PEPPER (20) did well when third in the aforementioned G2 July Stakes and cannot be ignored having since finished fourth attempting a valuable sales race at Naas last month. TADEJ (1) is better off at the weights than when struggling at York last start. Might go well based on his win in the 1200m G3 Prix De Cabourg at Deauville. This looks competitive. SPECIAL DIVIDEND (2) won his first two outings in style before finishing a pleasing third making handicap debut when raised to 1400m at York last time out.
