All five of this field hold chances. FIRST FOLIO (4) is probably the safest choice. Three from four over course and distance and arrives having finished third in a Class Two handicap off this mark at Ripon. WICKET KEEPER (3) disappointed providing handicap debut at Ayr in July. Won twice prior and clearly remains capable of better in handicaps. The 2022 G2 Richmond Stakes runner-up AL KARRAR (1) has not been seen since finishing fourth in a Listed race later that season. Can only be judged on his market strength. CABURN (2) heads the remainder.

The combination of soft ground and first-time blinkers looked to transform LEMURIAN (5) when he scored readily over this distance at Windsor seventeen days ago. A 3kg rise in the weights might well underestimate this well-bred Dubawi gelding and he can follow-up. DASHING DONKEY (11) is a dual course winner and cannot be left out of the equation as he seeks a hat-trick after winning nicely at Newmarket (July) last month. NOBLE GUEST (6) won well here on Tuesday and could easily go close once more under a 3kg penalty. GREY SOUL (10) makes each-way appeal.

CHLOE'S COURAGE (14) is a John Ryan trained filly who ran well making handicap debut tackling this trip on quick ground at Brighton and might be better suited by these conditions.
