ART OF DIPLOMACY (1) made it four wins in six runs since switching to the in-form Mickey Bowen yard securing a comfortable 2L Bangor triumph earlier in the month. Needs to defy a career-high mark. Trained by Hugo Palmer and since backed up with a good third in a sales race at York. Holds every chance here. Preferred. Two-time winner BYE LAW (5), arrives bidding for a hat-trick making nursery debut after following up a track and trip maiden success winning over the distance at Redcar last month. AMORIM (2) was a touch disappointing when fourth in the Listed Ripon Champion Two Years Old Trophy at Redcar last time. Winner of this last year STAR OF LADY M (3) looks primed to deliver a bold bid and defend her title. The David O'Meara trained mare ran well to finish third in the Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint Stakes following 309 days off. Could enjoy these underfoot conditions and take a step forward for that reappearance. STAR OF MEHMAS (10) managed to win the two-year-old Listed event on this card a year ago and might prove the main danger having secured a victory in a competitive York handicap last time. BEAUTIFUL DIAMOND (1) is two from two over course and distance. Capable of better than what she showed when eighth in the G3 Palace House Stakes at Newmarket (Rowley) during May. FLAT TURF GOOD SOFT Participants #12

The consistent KEATS HOUSE (5) seemed to enjoy conditions running out a commanding winner of a Class Six handicap over the 1600m at Musselburgh a week ago. Can follow up. A chief threat might come from GOLDEN VALOUR (11) who is 2kg well-in at the weights racing off the same mark as when landing an apprentice handicap at Musselburgh recently. Top weight PISANELLO (1) goes well on this ground and could be firmly in the mix after a neck third at Ripon (1600m) late last month. ATMOSPHERE (3) did well to finish third behind a nicely treated rival at Sandown on soft ground and cannot be discounted.

NATIVE HONEY (2) is without a win after six attempts over 1600m. Ran on strongly to get up by a neck over 1400m on his first attempt here forty one days ago and may prove capable of following up racing for a yard that won this last season. Stablemate DWINDLING FUNDS (6) warrants thought having made it three wins from his past four starts securing a head success over course and distance a month ago. THATS MY BOY LUKE (3) battled on winning by a nose tackling this trip at Ripon last time. Can remain competitive off this revised mark. QUIET RESOLVE (1) is another for the shortlist.

Jim Goldie looks to hold a strong hand once more. ANNANDALE (7) could prove the one to beat after his course and distance success a month ago. Three from seven tackling track and trip and looks well-treated with Lauren Young now taking off 3.5kg. The consistent SOPHISTICATE (11) cannot be left out of the equation racing for the same yard. Won after several placed efforts securing a nice victory here off just 1kg lower. FLEUR DE MER (10) was denied a neck attempting the class above on AW at Newcastle last start. In the mix once more.
