William Haggas is enjoying a fine latter part of the season and will be hopeful that MALTESE CROSS (4) can get off the mark second time out. Finished with a real flourish when going down by a neck tackling this trip at Ascot. May take a step forward. The more experienced DEL MARO (2) provided fair form both outings to date and holds obvious claims on figures representing the Charlie Appleby team. Andrew Balding won this two year's ago. His MOONLIGHT WARRIOR (6) rates the pick of the newcomers although RANGA TANG (7) requires a market check.

MONOCEROS (1) provided a nice winning debut at Newmarket (July) before missing from a short-price at Leicester under a penalty. SHALLOW (7) posted a big effort from the front when fourth behind ROYAL VELVET (1) over 1400m at York last month. SON OF MAN (1) receives a nice handicap. Holds place form here from his days as a two-year-old and shaped well from off the front when third over 2000m in this grade at Sandown. Can return to winning ways adopting first-time cheekpieces. Handicap debutant SHRIMP SHADY (8) might emerge as the biggest danger making handicap debut after returning from 352 days off providing a remote third-place finish at Kempton. SECRET BEACH (4) could be thereabout following a runner-up effort tackling this trip at Chester last time. KATE O'RILEY (3) would be worth noting if strong in the betting.

Trainer David O'Meara maintains an excellent record with runners here and CRIMINAL SHORE (5) may win. Now 1kg well-in at the weights following his neck defeat over 1600m at Musselburgh eleven days ago while booking Oisin Murphy catches the eye. The progressive GORGEOUS MR GEORGE (4) was a good second at Yarmouth (1400m) recently and will be in the mix if able to replicate that form at this different venue. Recent wide-margin Redcar winner JUST TYPICAL (11) cannot be left out of the equation under a penalty. SUNNY CORNER (3) makes for each-way appeal.
