ANTIPHON (6) enjoys this track having placed here past two outings with a neck second on similar going in a lower level course and distance handicap preceding a 1.75L third on quicker ground. Ticks plenty of boxes. Leading contender. CALL TIME (5) is another proving to be consistent during September securing a 1000m handicap victory on soft going at Chepstow before a pair of placings including a track and trip handicap third behind the top pick. Main danger. RORY ROCKET (1) showed ability on deep ground two runs back when 3.5L third in a higher graded 1200m handicap at Goodwood. Makes appeal. FRANCIS DRAKE (3) warrants a market check.

LADY LUCKY VEGAS (9) improved on her previous effort when third over 1000m at Bath beaten 4.5L after racing on the pace. Leading contender advancing in distance. MAASAI MATA (2) scored at Catterick before finishing 6L fifth attempting 1200m at Thirsk. Jack Nicholls takes the ride and that looks a positive move. Well placed to bounce back. SHOWCASIS OASIS (10) made late headway when fifth tackling 1000m at Southwell All Weather last time defeated 5L. Step up in trip expected to suit and form lines suggest she can be competitive. Solid hope. ARRY UP (5) produced a decent third in a 1200m contest at Windsor beaten 7L after racing close to the speed. Rates each-way.

HOLBACHE (3) continued consistent form securing a strong victory over course and distance last start scoring by 1.3L. Racing with confidence and proven under these conditions could be thereabouts again. THE ORGANISER (8) bounced back to winning ways at Brighton tackling 1200m last time prevailing by a nose after racing on the pace. Looks well suited under similar circumstance and may provide another bold showing. HAVANA GILA (5) ran a solid third at Brighton attempting 1200m last start beaten 2.5L. Does not win often but recent efforts suggest a breakthrough is close. Set to be competitive. BIG APPLE JACK (12) cannot be ruled out.
