Hurdle TURF GOOD Participants #9

JOLIE COEUR ALLEN (9) represents notable connections. Recorded a joint-career best when runner-up at Cartmel during June. Returns from a three-month break having placed twice racing fresh from a break. Good chance. JAMADA (2) shed maiden tag on latest outing scoring by 0.5L a Naas jumpers flat race. Now representing new stable making hurdle debut. Interesting. SUPREME GEORGE (5) also makes seasonal return. Last seen disappointing when fifth at Carlisle contesting a novice hurdle over the distance. Improvement expected. SAINT POLO (4) makes stable and rules debut. Finished fifth twice in point-to-points. Worth considering.

Charlie Appleby continues a fine campaign with his two year old runners and WINTER'S BLOOM (6) holds potential to be another juvenile winner. This daughter of Dubawi is a full sister to G1 winner Native Crown. She sports a hood on debut and is given a nice opportunity to commence her career. HELLO IT'S ME (3) is related to winners. Showed promise on debut at Chester and might come on for the run. Rates a danger. CERCIS (2) makes her debut for the Ed Walker stable. By Kodiak out of a listed place mare while OVERBUDGET (5) is a Mehmas filly debuting and and both these two newcomers may have a future.

EL MEGEETH (9) is yet to break her maiden in four starts despite finishing second past three occasions. The latest effort was a solid handicap debut behind a more streetwise opponent who has run well since. Form is strong and she could improve. BRIELLE (2) was solid throughout the summer winning twice. Raised in trip having found success over 2000m at Ayr last month. New journey could bring out more improvement. Trained by Jennie Candlish the handicap and stable debutante RODOYA (6) previously won on heavy ground in France and warrants a look in the market. PIQUE (1) is a former course and distance winner. UP THE ANTI (4) continues to be thereabouts finishing second past two starts. This three-year-old might improve again.
