SOVEREIGN WEALTH (1) is racing consistently. Recorded a career best on most recent appearance finishing runner-up in a Chelmsford handicap last week. May go one better. BLUE NGURU (4) aims to turn a pair of runner-up finishes into a win after placing second at Hamilton Park attempting a maiden before filling the same spot in a Catterick maiden. Interesting making first start on this surface. CHALE CHALO (2) placed a respectable third at Wolverhampton providing latest outing. Wears first-time cheekpieces and can remain in the placings. BALTHAMOS (3) needs to improve from a latest fifth at Wolverhampton.

LAZZAR (2) was slightly disappointing on most recent appearance finishing eighth at Wolverhampton two months ago. Is yet to gain a win since June. Lowered markedly in weight which could work in his favour. Not discounted. SEVEN FIRES (5) makes first career appearance. Bred by Sioux Nation out of Bamboo Queen. Worth considering. TINY TETLEY (1) managed to be keeping on at Exeter when set a stiff ask making chase debut. Finished well held on that occasion where jumping was good in the main so could be capable of more now switching back to handicaps. Might not be the biggest however is likeable and rates a major player. STRAW FAN JACK (6) won here against a small field in April. Well below the handicap mark he was placed at Cheltenham two seasons ago. Worth giving another chance. FORTESCUE (5) resumes after a 231-day absence. Signed off last season finishing fourth at Cheltenham beaten 15L. Ideally placed to be in the mix. JEFFERY'S CROSS (3) is proving consistent this season. Held last time. Brings course form.

KINGSTON SUNFLOWER (1) bids for a hat-trick after returning from a layoff. Managed to win three weeks ago at Huntingdon which was a fine effort and with a good claiming jockey on board is expected to take beating. BELLE LE GRAND (6) did well finishing second at Newton Abbot. Disappointed among novice company at Hexham and making her handicap debut off a fair opening mark is one to note. WALKADINA (3) performed favourably without troubling the principles at Cheltenham three weeks ago. Now fitter and looks a big danger. GAME COLOURS (2) provides her second outing after a wind operation. May strip fitter for her latest effort.
