Small on numbers but not lacking quality with all three runners set for bright chasing careers. LUCKY PLACE (2) was an above average graded hurdler who travelled as if something was a miss four weeks ago at Ascot. Should put that race firmly behind him and be sure to get back on track here. Star novice hurdler REGENT'S STROLL (3) needs to learn to settle having charged his way around here three weeks ago. Goes up in trip and as a noted novice chaser cannot be ruled out for one bad run. JIG'S FORGE (1) will have plenty to find on ratings. Returned from a spell last start managing a solid third in a steeplechase (4000m) at Cheltenham with this rider. Rates a decent chance against the line-up.

PEP TALKING (6) appeared revitalized since cheekpieces went on recording three wins and two placed efforts from six starts. Pulled up last time at Wincanton. Set to bounce back with a bold showing. Lightly-raced FOLLOWCATO (3) unseated his rider on seasonal debut at Lingfield before improving for fifth at the same venue. Wears first-time cheekpieces and is in the mix third-up. Two-time course winner REGAL RENAISSANCE (4) placed tackling the trip on Warwick reappearance prior to a below par subsequent effort at Bangor. Might feature. KIT'S COTY (10) merits consideration at this level off a career-low mark.

MASKED DANCE (4) returned after five-months delivering a fifth of ten effort in a higher grade at Uttoxeter. The Mel Rowley-trained mare was only beaten 2.75L that day and improvement is expected. Major player second-up. INCA DE LAFAYETTE (2) reappears from a long hiatus. Two from five at this level making first start after receiving wind surgery. Holds claims if there is a market lead. HIGH TEA (5) was always doing enough when opening his account gaining an easy 4L success at Chepstow. Feared. Hat-trick bidding WALDEN (6) arrives in strong form following back-to-back victories at Market Rasen and Huntingdon. Thereabouts.
