The in-form mare MIDNIGHT CALL (5) always looked to be doing enough when winning by a neck over 1200m at Wolverhampton recently. Tony Carroll has his yard in good form and a 0.5kg rise in weights might not be enough to stop her from completing a hat-trick now that she's back attempting 1200m. CALL GLORY (1) did well to finish a good second over 1400m here on Saturday and would have to be considered if turned out quickly. Previous course and distance winner BEAUZON (3) finished third tackling this trip at Wolverhampton last week and might get involved off the same mark. AUTUMN ANGEL (2) went down narrowly in that handicap and cannot be ruled out once more.

CHLOE'S COURAGE (5) lost little in defeat when going down by a head to JACKSON STREET (1) attempting a course and distance handicap three weeks ago. The former is now 0.5kg better off at the weights and might prove up to gaining compensation with a visor fitted for the first time while the latter has been going well of late and could produce a bold bid receiving a nice draw in stall two. MOUNT MOGAN (4) was by no means disgraced when fifth over 1600m here last month and dropping back to 1400m will suit this four-time track and trip winner. ROYAL JET (9) picked up well to win a similar course and distance handicap just under four weeks ago. The Tony Carroll-trained six-year-old has managed to build up a decent record at this venue and it wouldn't be at all surprising were he to defy a 1.5kg higher mark and complete a double. CELTIC JOHN (2) finished runner-up tackling track and trip. Could get involved up 0.5kg receiving a nice draw from gate three. TASKHEER (10) is two from six attempting the journey here and is hard to rule out following a decent second at the venue during November. Worth considering if ready to go.
