SUPER HIT (2) was denied by 0.5L at Lingfield last time. Close to a win on that form and with a champion jockey booked to ride rates a leading contender. APACHE GREEN (1) managed to keep on for a 1.75L second at Wolverhampton. Best effort for some time and can improve again. Consider VILLALOBOS (7) raced twice previously at this track producing a win and a placing. Enjoys the venue and maintaining good form this campaign is expected to provide another bold showing. EQUION (4) was denied by just a nose at Wolverhampton two starts ago. Not at same level only start since however certainly warrants another chance.

MAGNA (1) is thriving at present. Comes here looking for third consecutive victory with the most impressive being a 1L victory here two runs ago. Provided a great attitude when a nose winner at Southwell last time. MY MATE AJ (3) was well-backed when a promising third in a Southwell jumpers flat on debut sixty six days ago. The Ben Pauling-trained son of Soldier of Fortune will have learnt plenty on that occasion and can take a step forward here. Anticipated to come out on top. Paul Nicholls trains the well-bred newcomer LE COLD GREY (2) who warrants respect. ITSINTHENAME (1) showed distinct promise when third in an Irish point-to-point during October. Since joined the Nigel and Willy Twiston-Davies team and rates highly debuting under rules. MOSCOW STAR (5) would be worth noting first time out if attracting market support.

Oly Murphy does well at this venue and ZAMEK (14) could prove a major player now eased in standard. Produced a good second over course and distance making hurdling debut and was by no means disgraced when fourth behind a useful performer attempting a Class Two maiden at Kempton on Boxing Day. This son of Beaumeac De Houelle warrants thought. Jumpers flat winner WONDERING WHY (13) shaped nicely first up trailing a decent hurdler in a maiden hurdle at Huntingdon. CAYMAN DANCER (16) filled the runner-up spot on debut at Newbury a month ago and might feature if taking a step forward. JAMADA (7) also needs to be considered.

The drop back in trip might not be ideal however it still looks tough to oppose the in-form hat-trick-bidding BOLLIN THOU (2). This Nick Scholfield trained eight-year-old won at Uttoxeter before barely coming off the bridle at Hereford to strike by 21L just a week ago. Set to complete a treble with the extra 3.5kg unlikely to halt his momentum. COURT ONE (7) could be the one following him home having also filled the runner-up spot over course and distance last time out. INION TIOGAIR (4) remains a fourteen-start maiden. Might be thereabouts stepping back up in trip after managing a fair fourth at Hereford last month. FLAGON DRY (5) is next best.

BETTER OFF ALONE (2) is a Martin Keighley trained seven-year-old who shaped nicely attempting the standard above when third in testing ground at Uttoxeter a month ago. Form looks solid with the winner going on to finish an excellent second tackling a Class Two over the weekend. Fitted with a first-time visor and is worth considering. ONE LAST GLANCE (7) could be right in the mix racing off a 1.5kg higher mark than when runner-up contesting a 4800m handicap chase at Wetherby last month. Top weight KOENIGSSTERN (1) might feature now up in trip following a good second taking on fences at Warwick. THRUTHELOOKINGGLASS (4) makes for place appeal.

LADY PRETENDER (2) returned from a break and a wind-operation producing a dominant performance over fences at Plumpton last month. This Venetia Williams trained daughter of Great Pretender could have more to offer following that breakthrough success. Obvious chance off a 3.5kg higher rating. BEGIN THE LUCK (3) battled on well to prevail by a nose at Wincanton Boxing Day. It would be foolish to ignore this five-time chase winner up 1kg. CONSTANT FRIDAY (11) races off a feather weight and could be in the mix if building on his second-place finish in a conditional riders handicap chase tackling track and trip. GWENNIE MAY JEM (6) warrants a market check.
