SINTRA (6) was well supported as a debutante six weeks ago when showing promise finishing in third place at Newcastle over 1600m. Only beaten 1L on that occasion and now open to any amount of improvement could prove hard to beat. NOBODY KNOWS (1) made the perfect start to his career at Ayr six months ago. Given time during the winter to strengthen and rates a major player despite the penalty. Ralph Beckett is responsible for MICK THE HAT (2) who is by New Bay. Could know his job debuting and looks a likely chance on paper. REGULUS BLACK (5) is drawn nicely making debut. Market to be a good guide as to prospects.

LAHAN KINGMAN (4) was more than satisfactory when debuting tackling a decent contest at Newbury seven months ago when only 3.5L away in third place. This could get messy without a lot of forecast speed. MARINAKIS (4) was a disappointing favourite five weeks ago when only managing to finish third at Chelmsford. This seems a good handicap for the grade. FORTIFICATION (4) struggled to land a blow past two starts despite making the frame. Blinkers are now applied for the first time and looks capable of taking a big jump forward. DANEH OF DANDY (1) ran with credit when only denied 1.5L fifth attempting a listed race at Newbury during August. Not in the same form tackling that level at Ayr in September however holds potential making all weather debut. ALASRAE (7) bids for a hat-trick having made it back to back wins two weeks ago. Major player. DARK ANGEL STAR (6) hinted a good level of ability and is one to note.

MADAJOVY (9) looks to be slowly progressing. Receiving a handy weight allowance is sure to be giving a bold showing.
