SMURFETTE (4) rediscovered her form this season since moving from the Dan Skelton stable. Was a good winner when well supported over course and distance on soft ground three weeks ago and could prove hard to beat. COPSHILL LAD (3) scored on chase debut at Hereford in November. Managed to hold his form well since though not been seen since finishing fifth at Market Rasen in the Lincolnshire National. Better expected. LILTING VERSE (2) is given a chance by the assessor after several disappointing results. ICAQUE DE L'ISLE (1) was pulled up in the Devon National at Exeter last month and this will be more realistic.

CLASSICAL STING (3) responded well to the application of first time cheekpieces here earlier this month when held by 5L. Won't need to have improved too much to take this out. SHADOWFAX OF ROHAN (4) has performed favourably for this stable on both outings to date. Not disgraced at Catterick three weeks ago and retains scope for improvement. KNOWN WARRIOR (2) remains a maiden after seven attempts however did offer something to work with on soft ground at Plumpton running second beaten just 2L. One to take seriously. CATCHIM (1) didn't jump with much fluency at Huntingdon in latest at Christmas and remains best watched.

INDULTO ROUGE (1) didn't run badly delivering initial stable attempt at Hereford during November. Outclassed in a listed jumpers flat event at Ascot in December and was subsequently given wind surgery since. This looks a realistic opportunity to get off the mark under rules. SCOTT'S LEGACY (8) was well supported debuting at Hereford only to finish 19.5L fifth. More is expected here. TANDY'S BRIDGE (3) disappointed making stable debut at Warwick when clearly better was anticipated. One to note. MUSIC SONG (6) represents a yard who enjoy success in this sphere. JACK THE SAVAGE (5) had to dig deep to score by a head at Hereford two and a half weeks ago delivering a long overdue success. Could very easily go on now the win is under his belt. PECKFORTON HILLS (6) is yet to succeed with hurdles. Responded well to the application of cheekpieces and therefore cannot be dismissed. RABY MERE (4) hasn't fired yet for this stable in two starts since leaving the yard of Oly Murphy. Perhaps best watched once again unless supported in the market. BENEFICIARY (3) arrives off the back of a 5.5L second placed effort at Southwell two weeks ago attempting a low grade handicap. Could be seen to much better effect now switching back to classified company. OPTIMISTIC (8) remains a maiden and is unexposed after just the five career starts. Good effort finishing second at Wolverhampton three weeks ago and won't be far away. FLICKA'S GIRL (4) continues to perform well at this grade. Given a chance by the assessor having managed a third here earlier this month. MISTER MCGREGOR (7) won't be too far away if in the same condition as when 1L runner up here this month.

DRALI (5) held form nicely since breaking his maiden at Kempton Park in January. Encountered an improving rival at Southwell last month and will be very hard to beat if on song. PORT HEDLAND (8) wasn't disgraced last two starts. Expected to not be too far away given he did well in a number of outings here previously. BLACK CAB (4) bounced back to form tackling this grade and track a fortnight ago when only missing by 0.5L. Could easily make his presence felt once more. BERNIE THE BEAR (2) comes without a win for some time. Will find this a more realistic assignment than a number of recent attempts.

AMERICAN BAY (3) didn't have a bad time of things in 2025. Ran with real promise on the return to action over course and distance a fortnight ago when only 1.25L third. Could give another bold sight with fitness on side. BEAUMADIER (5) was a resounding winner here in February. Replicating that performance will be too much for the rest of this field. SMOOTH SILESIE (4) has not been seen since winning by 2L at Yarmouth in October ending a profitable campaign. One to watch. MR LIGHTSIDE (2) deserves a market check despite the frustrating streak of form representing a stable that can turn fortunes around.

TIME TO TAKE OFF (3) scored debuting at Nottingham during October. The winning margin was only 0.5L however that was value for more and could be capable of much more as a three year old. Exciting chance. MERLIER (2) improved from a decent debutante effort at Newcastle to score revisiting the same venue two weeks ago by 3L. Concedes weight and rates highly. BURDETT ESTATE (1) produced a good performance here in December winning on the second attempt. There is plenty to like about his profile. One of the stars of the winter AISLING OSCAR (4) can return to winning ways in what looks a more realistic assignment. Already an eight-time winner this all-weather campaign and hard to beat. PANAMA BLACK (5) could be capable of more having offered further hope at Southwell last month when 2.5L third. One to consider especially if supported.
